About the Author

Felisa Daskeo is a dedicated educator and writer who has combined her two passions to inspire and educate. She began her teaching career in 1984, finding immense joy in shaping young minds and nurturing the potential of her students. Her love for teaching has remained steadfast over the decades, making her a beloved figure in the lives of countless children.

Alongside her teaching career, Felisa has cultivated a talent for storytelling. She has penned numerous short stories that have been published in local Philippine magazines, showcasing her ability to capture the richness of life and culture in her narratives. Her stories often reflect her keen observations and deep empathy, resonating with readers from all walks of life.

Felisa took a bold step in her literary journey by self-publishing a novel on Amazon, demonstrating her commitment to sharing her voice with a global audience. Her works continue to inspire and entertain, bridging her roles as both an educator and a storyteller. Through her writing and teaching, Felisa Daskeo has made a lasting impact on her community, blending creativity with dedication to her craft.
